BY MS. GILFORD: Q. I'm asking for your understanding, sir. Do you do you know what being a class representative entails? A. To some extent. Q. What is what is your understanding? A. I understand that I am representing the class involved in the class action suit, whether stated in this agreement I'm looking at or not, that I am a representative and I understand that. Q. Why should the court appoint you as a representative?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	I am one of the artists in the class action suit who recorded for the company and has should have by now regained the rights to the recordings. BY MS. GILFORD: Q. Well, I understand you have an individual claim on behalf of The Dream Syndicate, sir. I'm asking you a different question. Why should you be a representative of other artists? A. Because this is a class action suit of artists that have a similar concern. Q. Do you know any of the artists who are in the class you seek to represent? A. I am looking right now at the the list on the screen and I know one in particular.
